TOUR OVERVIEW

Guided Tour of Florence. Visit Florence with your personal guide walking along the characteristic streets. This is a perfect tour for the one who wants to learn about the history of Florence and don't lose to see the main attraction of the city.

Discover the essence of Florence and the reasons why this city became the center of the Renaissance. Take a stroll through the old Center of the city where we will guide you to admire the Cathedral with its Dome, built by Filippo Brunelleschi and the famous Giotto Belltower.

We will visit the elegant Repubblica square, the main square of Florence that marks the center of the city, and Signorina square, and an open-air museum.

You will also enjoy the sight of Palazzo Vecchio, a remarkable example of civil architecture. Here you will discover the copy of Michelangelo's David, right in front of Palazzo Vecchio, as a symbol of the Republic's defiance of the tyrannical Medici. Following the Arno River, we will walk towards Ponte Vecchio and its gold jewelry shops.
