TOUR OVERVIEW

Today you are greeted at your hotel and driven to Paestum Archaeological Park (Admission fees Not included).

Paestum is one of the best places in Italy to see Greek ruins and is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The ancient city of Paestum sits just to the south of Salerno and the Amalfi Coast.

The town of Paestum, which was called Poseidonia at the time, was founded by the Greeks sometime around 600 BC and it gets its name for the Greek god of the sea. What remains today are three well-preserved Greek temples as well as the amphitheater, the remains of thermal baths and houses, and the roads that run through the city.
